On 1/13/12 Julie Larson reported that her and her husband Kenneth had an altercation. She stated to this Deputy that Mr. Larson came over to her residence on Juniper Drive to pick up his son. When he arrived, according to her, he cut the phone line and proceeded to punch her and drag her across the floor. She then stated that he threatened to kill her. She left the residence and called the police from her mother's on Oak Drive.

Mr. Larson stated to this Deputy that he had gone to the residence on Oak Drive to talk to Mrs. Larson about the well-being of their children. He then stated that Mrs. Larson then physically pushed him out of the residence and showed him pictures of a gentleman that she was having an affair with. Mr. Larson then stated that he asked Mrs. Larson to call the police. He stated that he did not want a confrontation with Julie but did not want to abandon the children. Larson also stated to reporting deputy that Julie did hit him after she pushed him out of the residence.

Deputy issued both Julie Larson and Kenneth Larson a summons for simple battery domestic violence. Nothing further at this time.
