What does it mean to be "liberating vs. dominating," in shared living spaces?

{ 5 }

Where might we begin?

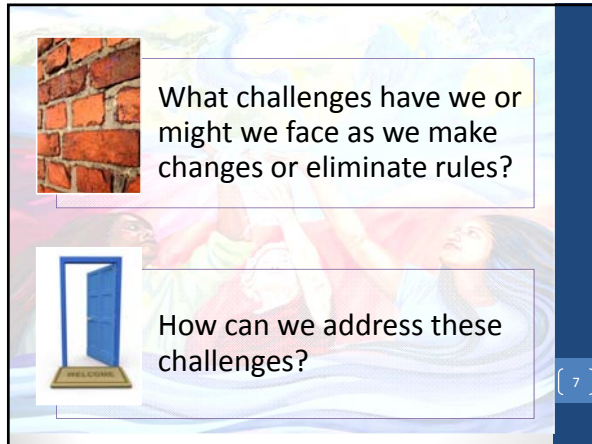

Who should be involved?

How can we determine what might have to change?

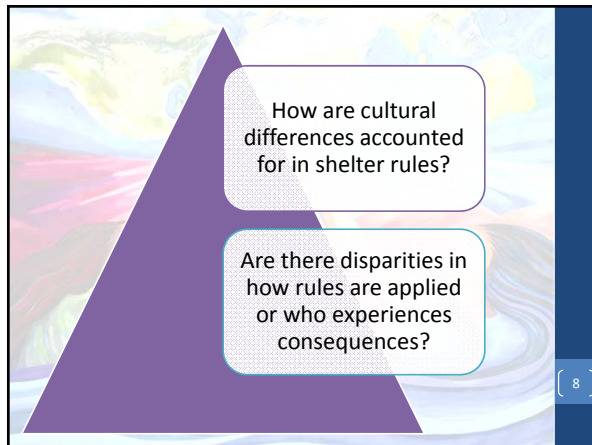

{ 6 }

What challenges have we or might we face as we make changes or eliminate rules?

How can we address these challenges?

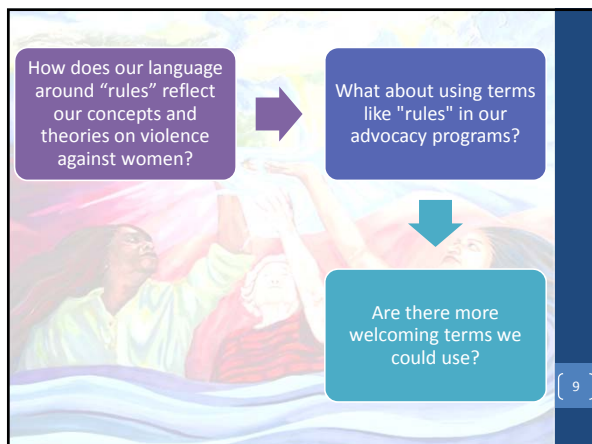

{ 7 }

How are cultural differences accounted for in shelter rules?

Are there disparities in how rules are applied or who experiences consequences?

{ 8 }

How does our language around "rules" reflect our concepts and theories on violence against women?

What about using terms like "rules" in our advocacy programs?

Are there more welcoming terms we could use?

{ 9 }

Closing thoughts...
